My dear Friend

From time to time my children have called our home "this railway station"/"this international airport". I make no apology For its use. For my comrades it was a cup of coffee, No public toilets existed For Blacks. IF they did, they were so Filthy that it was impossible to or the Loo.

From over use,
use them.

Ebi to me (Ebrahim Ismail to you) was a regular since 1955 - he was barely 16 then. Jobless and Fulltime Functionary ANC - if you think that that is contradictory, you are right. We were paid if there was money. Money was a scarce commodity For political work then. When our arch quisling gave evidence in the share. Some MP5 in various parts of Africa will tell (if they care to recall) that-they shared many a meal in "my railway station".

When the Tribal College for "Indians" was mooted we vowed never to have anything to do with it. But that campaign was not easily sustained. So Ebi decided to go to the tribal (bush) col-
