Dear Mr. Tambo:

Earlier this month you received a letter from me encouraging you to come to the University of Wisconsin-Madison as a visiting scholar. I apologize for the confusion. The intent of that letter should have been to ask you to encourage Pello Jordan to visit our university.

Again, I am sorry for the error. I do hope that you could speak with Mr. Jordan and convince him to come to Wisconsin.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Mr. Tambo:

I am writing to join Allen Hunter, Administrative Director of the A.E. Havens Center at our university, in encouraging you to come to the UW-Madison as a visiting scholar during the 1990-91 academic year.

Our university has many students and scholars who will be interested in meeting with you. I believe you will find the UW-Madison a friendly environment, a great setting for lively discussions, and that you will have an opportunity to meet many people with similar interests and concerns.

Sincerely,

kjf

Dear Donna Shalala,

I acknowledge, with deep appreciation and sincere thanks, receipt of your two letters to our President, Oliver Tambo, requesting him to encourage Pallo Jordan to visit your university during the 1990 -- 91 academic year.

V/e are indeed greatly honoured by this invitation. However, because of the rapidly unfolding situation in South Africa and the deep involvement of Pallo Jordan in this situation he is unlikely to be able to take up the invitation at this stage.

V'e hope this will not be of great inconvenience to you and the university.

Yours sincerely,

ANTHONY MONGALO
