

28 SEP "31 2.136 611 834 1819

. 304% Km: X394 as

3&0th

Eleven buried

in mass funeral

By KENOSI MOMSANE

ELEVEN victims. including a stillborn baby. of the carnage of Scptcmbcr 8 in Soweto Were buried in what speakers said was the last mass funeral yesterday.

The bahyhs mother. Ms

Rebeoca Mothapoof White

City. could not attend the funeral. She is still inacrili-cal condition in hospital.

Molhapo was nine months pmgnam when the

atlackcrs struck at her home.

Among those buried yesterday were four members of the Molshwencng family in Mofolo: Jeanette.

Joyce. Virginia and Janet.

Others were Mr Sipho

Mnkocna and Jeremiu

Mokmoanc. both of Zone 6

Diepkluof. Lula Machcic

of Zone 2 Mcadowlands.

Pius Thusi of White City

d

and Albert Chilaluke of Klipspmil.

Regina Mundi Catholic

Chulch was filled to capacity wth thousands 0(other mournnc-I'c 'hrnnged the route Aeamng w the cem-emry.

Women from differenl

denornjnaliunsV led by Mrs

Mascchaba Mary Mabaso.

formed a guard of honour

outside the church.

Speakers at the three-

hour service included

Azapo president

P.13/13

Mri

Pandelani cholovhodwe. h

Mr John Nkadimeng ol the

ANC. Mrs Winnie Mandela

and Mr Floyd Mashelc ol

the Mshenguville Crisis

Committee

All speakers blamed lhe

Govemmenl l'or lhe con- ?

linuing violence in the country

"Our enemies have divided us by using various

i mclhods. which include

" acts 01' lmm perpetrated

I by iaucless people.

l h'Wc also have In slup

i poinunu at each other and

l slomhextgirnefromdivid-

h ing us iunhcr." Nef-

l olovhodwe sand.

! MrsMandelamadamesv
I sage from the ANC.
gow-(J'u/s 20(97/4/