Dear Mr. Tambo:

It is my privilege to invite you to serve as a nominator for the Third Annual Africa Prize for Leadership for the Sustainable End of Hunger.

The Africa Prize annually honors a distinguished African who has exhibited exceptional leadership in bringing about the sustainable end of hunger at the national, regional or continent-wide level.

Through this prize, The Hunger Project focuses world attention on those qualities of leadership which are necessary to provide Africa's people with the opportunity they need to achieve their own economic viability. While the public often associates ending hunger with emergency famine relief, the Africa Prize is focused on the broader achievement of ensuring that the people of Africa have the economic wherewithal they need to win their battle against hunger.

In the enclosed report, you will find the speech presented by the 1988 prize laureate, His Excellency Robert Mugabe, President of the Republic of Zimbabwe. The report also includes a review of the dramatic gains Zimbabwe has achieved in food production, education, health, and family planning.

The report provides the information you will need in order to submit nominations for 1989. Nominations must be received by 1 June.

Given your experience, interest and perspective in the issues of African development, we would greatly appreciate your participation in this initiative through the nomination process.

Sincerely,

\MW

Dr. John Coonrod
Prize Administrator

condolence message you telexed us occasioned by the tragic death of our brother and colleague, Comrade Johnny Makatini.

Indeed you, Sonny, more than many others, would have a more precise idea of the extent of this loss to the ANC and our people, to Africa and to all those in the world who had come to value the rich and enriching qualities of Johnny as a normal, natural and essential part of many important delibera-â\200\224 tions.

Over the years and especially in the time of the Eminent Persons' Group
I came to know of countless discussions and consultations between yourself and Johnny and the spirit of mutual interdependence at countless Commonwealth sessionsfvmwhere you piloted us through turbulent waters of the other side's machinations.

But today our struggle continues with ever more urgent demands for greater mobilization of the hearts and minds of all. Even as we learn the tough task of not counting on the late Johnnyâ\200\230 8 informed judgementandk
