Militant black workers, the vanguard of the South African liberation struggle.

NEKU DI?

ANC DESIGN SERIES â\200\224 CARD NO. 1

The card depicts a young person studying at the Solomon Mahlangu Freedom College, established by the ANC on land provided by the Tanzanian Government. There, young victims of apartheid obtain â\200\231education for liberationâ\200\231 to enable them to play their part in building a new unitary, democratic, non-racial South Africa. The school has been named after Solomon Mahlangu, an ANC freedom fighter who was hanged by the apartheid regime on 6 April 1979. (This design was commissioned from Cat Santos.)

The ANC DESIGN SERIES is available in a pack of four cards from ANCSA Merchandise, PO Box 881, London, N7 8QW.

Other cards, posters, publications, and a large range of clothing, jewellery, mugs and gifts, bearing ANC symbols, are also available. Write to ANCSA Merchandise for a full catalogue.
