Dear Comrade Maindy,

Please find enclosed the statements from the lawyers in Botswana. As I intimated on the phone, I am leaving with George Chaane on Wednesday 4th November, 1987 for Gabobone to pay these bills, visit and interview the comrades held in Botswana prison and as per instructions of Chief investigate and follow up the possibilities of amnesty for them all. Chaane is to be admitted to practise in Botswana.

Maatla!

Dear Sirs

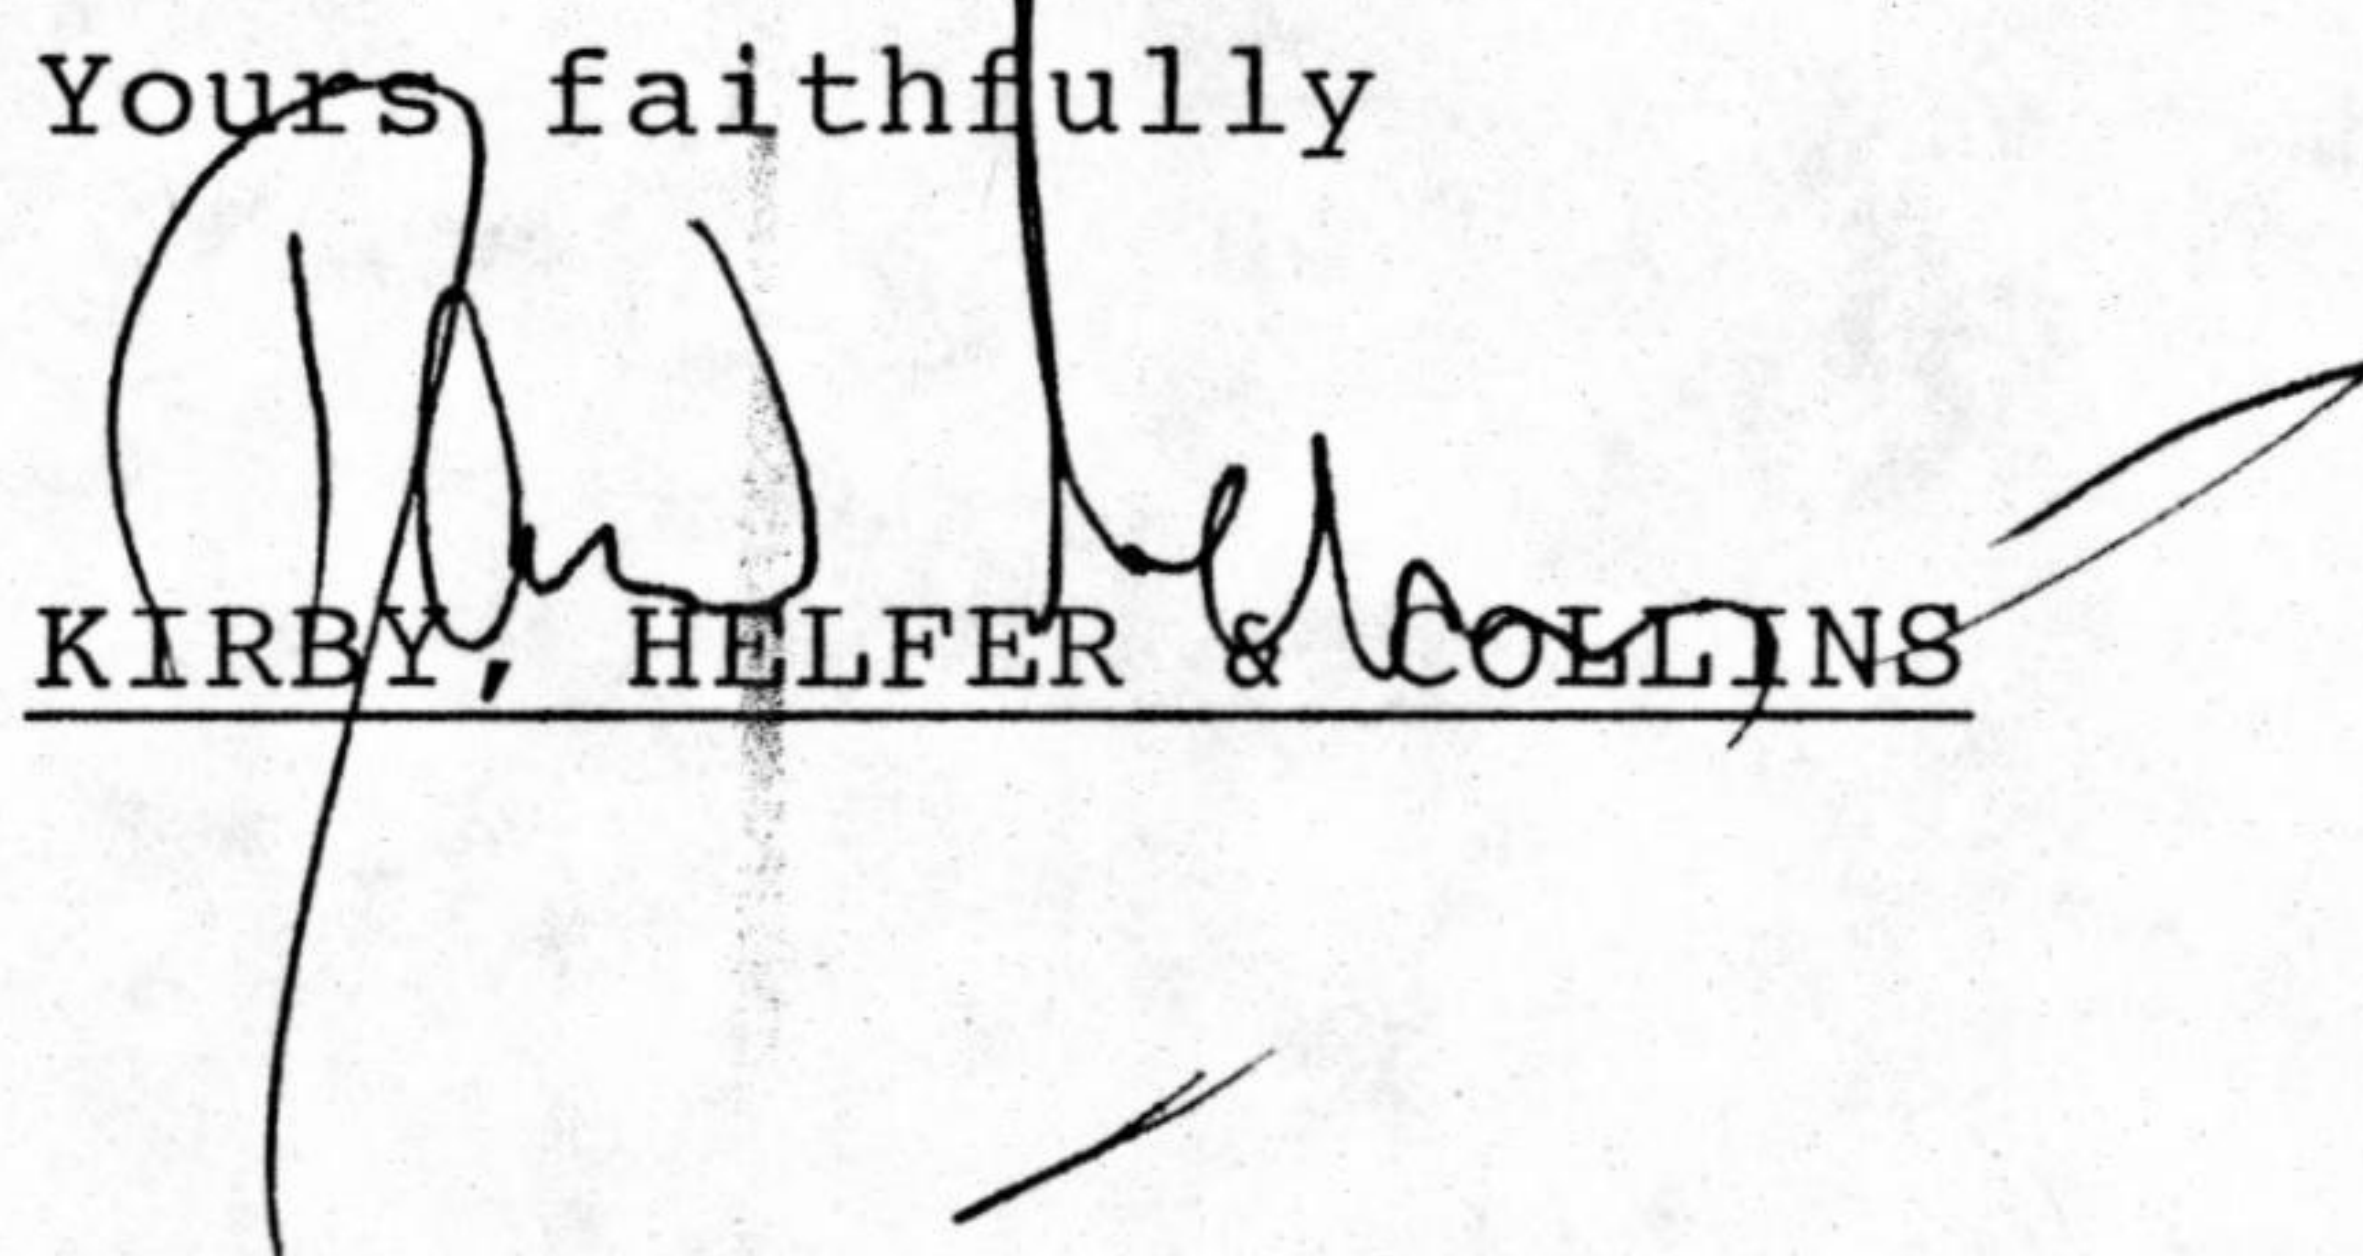

re : CRIMINAL CHARGE OF POSSESSION OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION
OF WAR - L 23/87

We refer to the above matter and are pleased to confirm that judgment was delivered by the Magistrate at Lobatse on 31st August 1987 in the following terms :

1. Kgosietsile Molema was acquitted on all charges and discharged;
- 2) Elias Mokoto was acquitted on the main charge of Possession of Arms and Ammunition of War and convicted of possessing one arm (a pistol and assorted ammunition) in respect of which offence the fine of P150,00 was imposed, or in default of payment the term of two months' imprisonment. This fine however is not payable by reason of the fact that the default term of imprisonment has been deemed to have been served.

The writer has been informed that you are returning to Zambia by plane this afternoon and we extend our best wishes to you both.

Yours faithfully

KIRBY, HELFER & COLLINS
