

TWO PETROL
BOMBS thrown
through the window at veteran
trade unionist,
Mrs Lucy Mvube-
loâ\200\231s, Orlando
West home completely destroyed
the furniture and
house at the week-

end.
No-one was injured in the fire, and

BO

S oW

TN

) guu3\Q%

HOUSE

By SELLO RABOTHATA

the anonymous South
African Suicide
Squad (SASS) has claimed responsibility for the bombing. A spokesman for the South African Policeâ\200\231

at Protea yesterday
confirmed the bombing and said members
of the Security Police
are investigating.

Flame

Mrs Mvubelo, who is the general secretary of the National Union of Clothing Workers, kept

asking rhetorically:] â\200\234What have I doneâ\200\235 as she cried, looking at the remains of what used to be her pride and home.
She estimated damage
done to the furniture
and house at more than R50 000.

She said: â\200\234I heard noises outside as if something was being dragged in the yard. I

immediately thought|:

somebody was stealing

BS HIT

WHAT HAVE | DONE: Mrs Lucy Mvubelo crying at her home yesterday.

called for the scrapping
of apartheid in the coun-Mrs Mvubelo also
med of problems if Neighbours helped fight the Government did not the fire with hosepipes implement meaningful and sand while waiting changess for the fire brigade. The = fire was extinguished before it could destroy the

the fire brigade arrived about 45 minutes later.

my new gate and on investigation, my nephew
and I saw a large flame
commg from the lounge which is at the front of the house. When he told me it was a bomb I
rushed to my neighbours, who phoned the | fire brigade. The incident took place at about 1 11.30 pm.â\200\235

Mrs Mvubelo said

two bedrooms in the house. She said she would like to thank all her neighbours who rallied round to help when the fire started on Sunday night.

Mrs Mvubelo has not been in. the good books

of a number of black
leaders in the past for encouragmg foreign investment in South*Africa. She also called on the African National Congress to support the (call. Last week she said she supported ajj liberation movements and

Pic: MBUZENI ZULU

AP \ARY