

433x23 K "'9_ ' HAJXL if.
.SH$F 4 /NLH TF1 CEIAAF%0Qne73hQ h 12
w VIOLENCE K

' That SADF military operatives designed, printed and distributed pamphlets undermining the MDM and U0? in the greater Durban area with Inkatha's assistance.

h That police paid R100 000 for the Umzumbe Youth Rally. It was my initiative together with the Umzumbe Youth to stage the rally.

' That Inkatha T-shirts were initially designed by the SADF.

t That the attack in Wesselton (Ermelo) August 1990 happened when Inkatha hit squads were in Ermelo.

t There are 200 highly trained hit squad members, who were abhorred by the Kwa Zulu Police in 1989 and are strategically posted in the various Kwa Zulu police stations, their activities have been publicised in previous newspaper articles. Therefore the Kwa Zulu police officer Sgt Mthembu, who claimed in the Supreme Court last year that there were Inkatha hit squads, was quite correct.

' That Inkatha Youth Brigade used video material produced by the SAP, reflecting the ANC as the principal initiator of the Maritzburg violence, in its membership drive programmes.

' Sensitive ANC documents are discussed at Central Committee meetings.

' That training for Inkatha strong man Themba Khoza took place in Pretoria a few weeks before the violence on the Witwatersrand.

The points I have stated are clearly of national and international significance. Our brothers and sisters are killed in the townships daily in a fierce battle for political survival. Inkatha has systematically, consciously and intentionally received massive financial, military and

6101 788 I10 82:60 26: HUI II