the people inside - Jameson Hall attending it were - not even aware of the student â\200\230demonstration outside. 7

He said the report was a disservice to the uni.

. versity and to the stu.

~dents, who were

staging
@ peaceful demonstn.ï¬\201on.
WITNESSED

The reporter who witnessed the protest and â\200\230reported on the ceremony said when the ceremonial Procession appeared ang filed into Jameson Hall, singing Gaudeamus Igitur,
the students, who had waving %a-

cards and singing e
Shall Overcome,

Another complaint was received from Mr Oscar D Dhlomo, the Secretary-General of Inkatha, who said the graduation ceremony was not â\200\234disruptedâ\200\235 in any way by a handful of white students who

Mr Dhlomo also dis puted thefact-thatmo atudentstookplaceinthe

who carried placards- and Atthey numbered 50 to be

PULLED DOWN

Neither did I see any frictionâ\200\231 deve-l when Inkatha supporters calmly pulled down some placards that criticised Chief Butheleziâ\200\235 Mr Dhlomo said.

But he strongly attacked the â\200\234starry-eyed innocent young white liberalsâ\200\235 -

Who took part in the demonstration, forâ\200\230criticising the organisationâ\200\231s leader, Chief Gatsha Buthelezi.

Mr Dhlomo said it would take the oppressed black people many years to understand the logic of white libera] students who continued to pursue their studies at universities from which black students were debarred by legislation ang enacted by an all-white parliament. And yet they had the audacity to discredit -

Chief Buthelezi, who had spent more than three decades of his life fighting against the evil

of white privileges and white minority rule.

Mr Bob Steyn, head of
