

/_/% y') ) â\200\230,-:-\?\Â»Â»i Lâ\200\230; .

~\~\E NRTNÂ« \(\\\â\200\234â\200\230\mzss A4 mi%:ï~\201 g

EDEND al reoj ; eratir fadyin walked from my home to he ~ gates yesterday >ai~\201.er;ja two-month Labour Reporter ~ ~ tion that the number of pati ents evidence as patients lined up for Mtolosaid. = il
;fsht_x.tdown and Immediately began L â\200\224 - comingin mig_.h;suddenly peakthis doctor sâ\200\231 prescriptions. ~ Nursing staff and general a: taking i,n.;rPiatleqts;ï~\201om Greyâ\200\231s and AT N s week,â\200\235 one doctor said. _
One of the few patients to be ad- tants said they are satisfie Northdale hOSpl,t'aIS:as wellasfrom port for patients coming from Although most wards were still mitted to the hospital, A - outstanding grievances wi â\200\234beâ\200\231 nearby areas. T o S Grey's and Northdale hospitals to empty by the end of yesterday, doc-Mtolo, said the reop i xiofit ,1.1{ai~\201dlfed-respon,,siblyâ\200\230-and that there
- The day Started;mth a burst of which they had been transferred tors said they had alread y treated hospital has saved | lim being will be no need for further indus-activity as all,categfonesgf staffre- during the shutdown, b LT s umore: than 100 patients, most of shunted around from one hospital trial action. G R turned to their posts. But the flow Despite the low admission rate, whom were discharged because to another. â\200\234I could not be ad- Staff went on strike two months ~ofpatientswasslow. . all the staff were at the ready to â\200\230they.hadminorcom-plajnts.
... mitted at Greyâ\200\231s over the weekend â\200\230ago demanding guarantees on pen-
- Most of the staff interviewed ~deal with a full-scale operation, All %EXceptions to the l ack of activity and I was considering the next hos- sions, job security, promotions and |
- attributed the slow influx of departments, from â\200\234outpatients to at the hospital w ere the outpatient pital when I heard that Edendale permanent status for certain cat- | ~ patients to lack of adequate trans- recovery unit,_w,e_r_efully'-eâ\200\231quipped.'; dep artment_.'and the medical clinic, was reopening. So today I simply egories ofica"s.ual,,sta ff.f;_ Liasaarnuli

VEDENDALE'HospitaI f_e,o',i):enedfifsâ\200\234 ~ byVUSINGEMA â\200\234We are operating on t he assump-- where long queues WerÃ©-alâ\200\230ready"â\200\231ii~\201'