Dear Mr. Gqabi,

We enclose herewith a copy of a letter which we tried to send to you by hand before Christmas, but our representative was unfortunately unable to contact you. We are now pleased to have received your address, which enables us to write to you direct.

You may already know the addresses of our Interdenominational Legal Information offices, through whom we are giving financial assistance to your members. However, we give below the two addresses:-

Room 126, Dublin House, Victoria Street,
Salisbury Telephone 708678

No.3 Derby House, 6th Avenue and Main Street,
Bulawayo Telephone 65496

The Secretary of the Interdenominational Legal Information Committee is Mr. Joshua Shumba, who runs both offices but is based in Bulawayo. He visits the Salisbury office regularly and can be contacted through his Secretary there - Miss Sipho Maseko.

It has now been decided that the 12 ANC ex-prisoners will receive their grants of $100 each at the end of January, after which the grants will be reduced and, after March, discontinued. The amount of the grants to be made in February and March will depend on the men's circumstances. We understand that 7 of them receive social security payments; 3 of them are seeking grants for self-help projects, and Christian Care would help with this, subject to approval of the projects.

We are sending a copy of this letter to Mr. T. Nkobi and look forward to hearing whether any plans or suggestions are being made by the ANC to assist these men.

With every best wish Phyllis Altman

Yours sincerely,

Phyllis Altman
