Dear Brother Muse Cusa,

We have received, with deep appreciation and sincere thanks, your two letters dated November 1, 1989, to our President, Oliver Tambo, inviting a delegation of the ANC to visit the Mathaba Office in Tripoli preferably before the end of 1989 and also inviting Our seven brothers recently released from prison to come to the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya for special medical treatment.

I am pleased to inform you that the health of our President has greatly improved though he will still need some time of rest.

With regard to an ANC delegation to visit the Mathaba Office,

I am referring this invitation to our National Secretariat that prepares such delegations. The National Secretariat will then contact you to inform of the composition of the delegation and the possible dates of the visit.

Unfortunately the seven brothers recently released from prison' have not yet been granted passports and thus are not yet free to travel} We have, however, already received several invitations for them to visit various countries and thus your invitation will be kept in mind and you will, in due course, be informed of the possibilities.

Your brother in the struggle.
