

UNIVERSITY OF NATAL

GRADUATION/DIPLOMA CEREMONY

1995

FRIDAY 28 APRIL

18h00

PIETERMARITZBURG

DIE STEM VAN SUID-AFRIKA

(Official Afrikaans version)

Uit die blou van onse hemel, uit die diepte van ons see,
Oor ons ewige gebergtes waar die kranse antwoord gee,
Deur ons vér verlate vlaktes met die kreun van ossewa -
Ruis die stem van ons geliefde, van ons land Suid-Afrika

Ons sal antwoord op jou roepstem, ons sal offer wat jy vra:
Ons sal lewe, ons sal sterwe - ons vir jou, Suid-Afrika.

(Official English Version)

Ring out from our blue heaven, from our deep seas
breaking round;
Over everlasting mountains where the echoing crags resound;
From our plains where creaking wagons cut their trails
into the earth -
Calls the spirit of our country, of the land that gave us birth.
At thy call we shall not falter; firm and steadfast we shall stand.
At thy will to live or perish, O South Africa, dear land.

(A Zulu Translation)

Kusuka ekucwatheni kwesibhakabhaka sethu
Kusuka phansi ekujuleni kolwandle lwethu
Phezu kwezintaba zokhahlamba ezimi phakade
Lapho amawa eduma enanela imisindo
Phezu kwamathafa akithi kude le
Umsindo wokugedlezela kwezinqola
Kunyenyeza izwi lothando
Lwakho lizwe lethu Ningizimu Afrika

Siyokuzwa ukumemeza kwakho
Siyonikela ngakho konke okucelayo
Siyophilela futhi sifele
Wena Ningizimu Afrika - izwe lethu.

(Translation by Mary Gordon and Msawakhe Hlengwa, Department of Zulu, University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg. The translation is not literal, but tries to capture the spirit of the original. No attempt was made to fit the words to the tune.)

CONFERMENT OF THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS
honoris causa UPON
DESMOND MPIOLO TUTU

Desmond Tutu was born in Klerksdorp in 1931. He matriculated in Johannesburg, took a teacher's diploma and a Unisa BA, and taught at high schools for five years. He left the teaching profession in protest at the passing of the Bantu Education Act, and trained to become a priest at St Peter's Theological College, Rosettenville. He was ordained in 1961.

He then spent five years in England, where he obtained an Honours degree in Divinity and a Master's degree in Theology at the University of London. Returning to South Africa, he lectured for three years at the Federal Theological Seminary at Alice. He then moved to the Department of Theology at the University in Lesotho. From 1972 to 1975 he was back in Britain, as Associate Director of the Theological Education Fund of the World Council of Churches.

In 1975 he was appointed Dean of Johannesburg, and began to become prominent as an opponent of apartheid. A year later he became Bishop of Lesotho. In 1978 he returned to Johannesburg to take up the crucial post of General Secretary of the South African Council of Churches. In 1985 he became Bishop of Johannesburg, and in September 1986 he was elected to the position of Archbishop of Cape Town.

For more than twenty years Desmond Tutu has been widely known as a vigorous, fearless but generous and good-humoured upholder of the rights and dignity of all South Africans. Several books of his sermons and speeches have been published. He has been showered with honours. He has received awards, medals, prizes and other tokens of admiration from organizations in many different countries. He has been the recipient of innumerable honorary degrees from universities all over the world including Oxford and Harvard. The most prestigious of his achievements is the Nobel Peace Prize, which he was awarded in 1984. In his own country, for most of this period, he was very popular with the oppressed but frowned upon and often denounced by those in power.

The University of Natal honours Archbishop Desmond Tutu for the many courageous actions that he took in his quest for a non-violent socio-political transition in South Africa, and for the example of positive spirituality that he has set to his fellow citizens of South Africa and of the world.

THE CHANCELLOR

"Chancellor" is an office that goes back to antiquity; the original cancellarius regulated access to the Roman Tribune. In medieval times, the office became associated with the heads of the writing departments of early kings. Because so few people were literate, a chancellor was automatically learned. This explains why heads and spokesmen of the early universities were also accorded the title. More recently, the office has become largely symbolic. The executive head of a university is its vice-chancellor.

Archbishop Hurley is the current Chancellor of the University of Natal. His predecessors are: The Honourable D G Shepstone (1949-1966), Dr G G Campbell (1967-1973), Dr B A Armitage (1973-1983), and the Honourable R N Leon QC (1983-1992)

THE MACE

The Chancellor's Mace, generally referred to as "The Mace", is used on ceremonial occasions presided over by the Chancellor and is regarded as the Chancellor's staff of "office". It symbolises the University's protection of its Chancellor.

The use of the mace as a symbol of authority has a long history. The head of a copper mace, which apparently dates back to the 12th century before Christ, has been excavated at Beyce Sultan in Asia. In the early centuries, churchmen who went to war often carried a mace in preference to a sword. One side of the mace-head was beautifully decorated with the owner's emblem and on the other side was a large knob which served as a weapon, and was always round so that the church law never to shed blood was always carefully observed!

In the early centuries the mace was a symbol of the king's authority. During the power struggle between the king and the Commons in the 13th century, the king gave the speaker the mace as a symbol of his indemnity against arrest.

The Mace was designed by Mr G H Atkins, senior lecturer in sculpture in the University's Department of Fine Arts, was made in England and was first used at the 1970 graduation ceremonies.

THE ARMORIAL BEARINGS

(see front cover)

The armorial bearings of the University of Natal were awarded by the College of Arms in London.

The two black wildebeeste come from the arms of the Province of Natal. They are shown in full course to symbolise movement and progress.

The two open books represent the universal heritage of knowledge and the two centres of the University, Durban and Pietermaritzburg.

The five-pointed star refers to the naming of Natal by Portuguese navigators when they landed for the first time at Durban on Christmas Day in 1497. Stella Aurorae, star of the dawn, symbolises the role of the University in bringing to light new knowledge and spreading the enlightening influence of education.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The wearing of gowns by judges, ministers, teachers and scholars is an ancient and impressive custom. When the graduating students at universities receive their diplomas or degrees they, too (and perhaps, for some, only this once in their lives) wear the caps and gowns of this long tradition. By wearing the ancient regalia, they hold hands with students past and students present. In modern times the standard cap and gown are almost universally worn. Of all the components of the costume, the hood conveys the greatest amount of information : it makes clear the level of the degree, the faculty in which it was given, and the institution which awarded it.

CONVOCATION

After being capped by the Chancellor, each graduate moves across the stage and hands to the President of Convocation or his representative a hood incorporating colours that indicate the degree being awarded and the Faculty in which it is being awarded. The President of Convocation places the hood upon the graduate's shoulders, and, at the end of the ceremony, after the Chancellor's procession has left the stage, leads a procession of the new graduates out of the hall, row by row, to symbolise their acceptance into, and future membership of, the Convocation of the University of Natal, the statutory body through which graduates have the opportunity to play a continuing part in the affairs of their University.

|--|--|
| 1. Lord save Africa,
May its honour be lifted high.
Hear our prayers:
Lord save
Us, the family of Africa.

Come spirit ...
Come spirit ...
Come holy spirit,
That you may save
Us, the family of Africa. | 2. Lord save our country,
That you may end wars and oppression.
Lord save our country,
That you may end wars and oppression.
That you may save ... save
That you may save Lord ... save
Our country,
Our country.

Let it be so,
Let it be so,
Let it be finally and forever so,
Let it be finally and forever so. |

University Anthem

Natale solum canimus
Cui sol adest faustissimus
Almamque matrem dicimus
Aurorae Stellam colimus.

*O vivas, in aeternum, vivas,
Alma mater, quae nos ditas,
Fove serva protege
Stella aurorae signum Natale.*

Hic juvenes addiscimus
Ad artes corda ferimus
Qui domus species sumus,
Quocumque nos dividimus.

Hinc etsi nos discedimus
Scottarum rus meminimus
Ad Umsinduzi tendimus
Mentesque saltem vertimus.

Gaudeamus Igitur

Gaudeamus igitur, juvenes dum sumus;
Gaudeamus igitur, juvenes dum sumus;
Post jucundam juventutem, post molestam senectutem,
Nos habebit humus, nos habebit humus.

Ubi sunt qui ante nos in mundo fuere?
Ubi sunt qui ante nos in mundo fuere?
Vadite ad superos transite ad inferos,
Ubi jam fuere, ubi jam fuere.

Vita nostra brevis est, brevi finietur:
Vita nostra brevis est, brevi finietur:
Venit mors velociter, rapit nos atrociter,
Nemini parcetur, nemini parcetur.

Vivat Academia, Vivant Professores,
Vivat Academia, Vivant Professores,
Vivat membrum quodlibet, vivant membra quaelibet,
semper sint in flore, semper sint in flore.
