

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

1 May 1991

Dear Abdul

I wish to thank you for all the trouble you have taken to ensure that I receive your cuttings daily. I find them most interesting

- and often very frightening. What a country!

I am very sorry to learn of your Eather's indisposition; and I agree that you should immediately proceed to be with him. What will happen at immigration offices will be seen at the time. I do hope they will have some sense.

I wish you everything of the best, and my warm regards to your wife.

Deal- Comrade Oli'

I have j uist returned from a week lcz>n eg visit to Washing ton DC3 _ There I met a number o~f j ou rn a l ists, including some -from the ' al ternative media' who are very sympa the tier to us -

One o" f the prob l ems we i ac e in the UE3f^, as in Western Europe, in relation to the main tainance o-f sanctions is the way in which the violence in EBA is presented - The media (generally report each incident that they toother to coyer"as a separate event- Seldom do they seek a pattern which links the violence to state policy-

In e-f-fect, De Klerk has achieved a certain initiative in that he has been ah l e to project himsel-f as the great toene-f actor who is in earnest about ending apartheid and seeking peace in SA . O-f course he is speaking to willing audience s the governments o-f the West and their media. De Klerk has been pretty sue: c ess t u l in playing the racial card which, to put it

It is -this which I wish to add

X propose that serious concern on side? reaction shave 1 candle toe (given to invoking the support of ex-president Jimmy Carter-

This was suggested to me by US friends_

Jimmy Carter- has investigated the situation in such LJS client states as Dominica and Guatemala, and I gather has reported on the situations in those countries quite -fairly, in the sense that he did not cover up -for "those perpetrating the violence as an instrument of state policy, nor -for "the CIA -for whom the violence was an instrument of LJS policy-

It is unlikely that Jimmy Carter would act at the request of the ANC to investigate the underlying role of the state in the violence in South Africa- We too may not wish to approach him directly -for obvious reasons - It has therefore suggested to me that he should approached through Representative Ron Delums and through Rep Howard Wompe,

-former chairperson of the House committee on Southern Africa- Both are Democrats of course, and both are very good on understanding the violence in SA and the need for sanctions not to toe lifted at present- I attended a hearing of that
