Dear Walter,

Following Lindiwe's telephone conversation with you this afternoon, I am thrilled to hear that you and Mama will be able to arrive in New York City on September 27. Actually, Lindiwe called you from my office where we had been meeting for several hours about your visit to the United States. And as per Lindiwe's suggestion, I am enclosing a tentative schedule that we are putting into place.

It will be of great help to us if your office can send us a confirmation of your being available for the days suggested in our schedule, September 27 to October 12. In this country, everyone is on the verge of taking time off for the summer vacation and we would like to confirm our schedules before the holidays start.

As you will notice, we are preparing for no more than two events per day, one by the Africa Fund and another at the suggestions of the Washington ANC office. Our experience with Mama's trip suggests it is better to set limits on the number of meetings each day in order to avoid an overly tiring schedule.

I will be seeing you and Mama in Durban in July and hopefully I will have further details for you.
