THIS PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY,

NOTING the current wave of violence which is being used to destabilise the transition towards a democratic government,

AND BELIEVING that the South African government has so far deliberately not taken sufficient action to root out the reactionary forces behind the violence,

AND FURTHER BELIEVING that the impartiality and full cooperation of the security forces in addressing the violence cannot be guaranteed until the existing armies have been integrated into a united non-racial security force.

THEREFORE RESOLVES that the government must take immediate steps in consultation with mass-based democratic organisations to resolve the violence. and as a matter of urgency must initiate the process of negotiation around integration of Umkhonto we Sizwe and other armies into the security forces.
