

SQNXxDBi; hxvxbxgh X x q (a Z/ANC officials discuss

o1

Ramaphosa-Meyer talks-

By Esther Wu'h

Polltleel Report"

The ANC national executive committee (NEC) is 8th) locked in e three-day meeting discus-un; the progress in talk: hev tween ANC secretary-genetel Cyril Remephou end Constitutional Development Minister noel! Meyer.

ANC sources have indiceted thet It was unlikely thet the NEC - the body which decided to break on constitutional talks on June 2: - would discuss the resumption o! multiparty negotutiou.

Inltead. the meeting will evaluate whet pro rm. ll any.
has been made m e three one-4 on-oue talks between Mr Runa-phoel end Mr Meyer.

At most. the NEC could de-ctde on the upgrading ot the one-on-ohe dtseuutoua to full-Icele btletenl talks.

It u understood that the hill!
O! dtecuuton will be a report on the oae-on-oue talks by the ANC tionl commiulon.

The ANC ha repeatedly aid the Government hed to make "utMectot-y" prom tn meet. tn; lt: lt demands on violence and trenlttttonel arrangements.
It was theretore unlikely thnt the NBC would dtscuu the re eumtpton of negotiations. ANC sources aid.

The Stu he: been reliably tn-tormed that I cell will he made It the meettnl tor breeder coo-eultetlon end reportvhechl Ihould bilateral talk: he re- - sum

The three-dey meeting is one of the regular three-monthly Nu: meetthu end hu not been I telly convened to discuss t e negotiations deadlock. "

Senior ANC source have denied reports that the meeting vm a crucial test of menu. hetweeh "pragmettete" end "militants". pointing out that the eo-celled hugger: wete not ovpoeed to neg t on. -

In another development Ph-Itdeht PW de Klerk uterdey met hutheuvlhe rudent Luce: gape. Talk: loeuled mathly oh the negotiation end h constitutional pm

574/ H/fa