Munich, 19. November 1992 IV/4 - Fr/Frol

Dear Sir.

The Institute for Foreign Relations of the Hanns Seidel Foundation is organising an International Conference on the Development of Democracy and Social Market Economy on 2 and 3 December 1992 in Windhoek / Namibia.

In my capacity as chairman of the Hanns Seidel Foundation I have pleasure in cordially inviting you to participate in this conference.

Apart from 8 highranking politicians and experts from the German Federal Republic we are expecting 60 participants from many countries of Southern Africa.

Under the general subject "Development of Democracy and Social Market Economy in Southern Africa" the political and social aspects of the reform processes in progress in the region will be discussed. Short reports of about 20 minutes will introduce the various subjects. Reports and the discussions will be translated simultaneously into English and German.

Travel expenses as well as accomodation and board which are incurred in connection with the conference will be covered by the Hanns Seidel Foundation (please see attached "General Informations").

The conference will start on 2 December, 1992 at 09.00 am, departure will be on 4 December.

Place of the conference will be the Hotel Safari, PO Box 3900, 9000 Windhoek, Tel. +264/61/38560, Fax: +264/61/35652, Tlx: 0908-438.

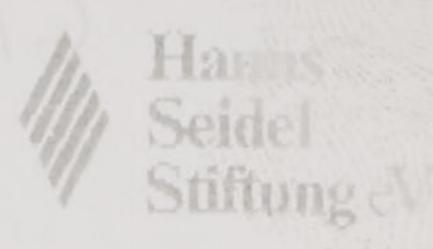

The programme and the other conference documents will be handed out to you at the begin of the conference. This invitation is addressed to you personally and

Vorsitzender; Staatsminister a. D. Dr. Fritz Pirkl, MdEP
