Application for Accommodation: Postgraduate

All students who are contemplating postgraduate study at the University and wish to apply for residence in a University Hall of Residence, a University self-catering flat or the Mary Morris International Residence are invited to complete this form and return it to:

The Senior Assistant Bursar (Accommodation)
The University
LEEDS LS2 9JT

Please use a long envelope and mark it SA/PG in the top left-hand corner.

Please read the notes (a)–(g) before completing the form.

- (a) Applicants are asked to complete this form using a pen with black ink or a black ballpoint pen in order that the form may be photocopied. Please print your name and address in BLOCK CAPITALS.
- (b) The number of places reserved for postgraduates in the University halls of residence and University self-catering flats is limited and so completion of this form in no way guarantees that a place in University-owned accommodation will be allocated to every applicant. The allocation of places by post starts in July but there is a special and substantial allocation in September of places in University self-catering flats reserved for SINGLE overseas students who are coming to Britain for the first time. This special allocation is made only when the overseas student actually arrives in Leeds. The number of places reserved within the special allocation is expected to cover the demand from eligible students.
Depending on the level of demand from new undergraduates there may be a further allocation of postgraduate places for UK based students in September.
- (c) Students should note that normally all University accommodation contracts are for the minimum period of October–June inclusive. In University self-catering flats the rent contracts include residence during the Christmas and Easter vacations. In University halls (where some or all meals are provided) the fees cover the cost of residence for the 30½ weeks of the undergraduate teaching year only, and additional charges are payable for the Christmas vacation (usually 4 weeks) and the Easter vacation (4 or 5 weeks). The hall(s) designated to take vacation residents varies from vacation to vacation so it may be necessary for students to move from their own hall to another in vacation.
Exceptionally it may be possible to offer a short-term contract but this is only permitted if the duration of the applicant's academic course is less than 9 months. Any person who moves from University accommodation into private market accommodation will be liable for the residential fee or rent for the remainder of the University contract unless an appropriate replacement person is available. A married student who has not been successful in obtaining University married quarters should take careful note of the financial implications of entering a single person residential contract for 9 months if it is hoped that his/her spouse and/or children will come to Leeds before July. Arrival of a spouse/family does not necessarily mean a release from the financial obligation of the rent due under the single person accommodation contract.
- (d) Good quality, inexpensive accommodation for married students is not easy to obtain and for those with children the problem is even more difficult. The University has only a small stock of married quarters and very few of them are suitable for children. It is likely that students who need this type of accommodation will have to look in the private market for housing. The staff of the Accommodation Office will do all that they can to assist with advice about how to look for accommodation BUT IT IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED THAT SPOUSES AND FAMILIES SHOULD NOT BE BROUGHT TO LEEDS BEFORE ACCOMMODATION IS SECURED.
- (e) The Mary Morris International Residence is an independent housing association and is not under the control of the University. It houses students from the University and Polytechnic in self-catering accommodation which is similar to that provided within the University self-catering flats. Normally 75% of the places are allocated to students from overseas. The minimum contract period is for 40 weeks from October – early July. The majority of the accommodation is for single persons but a few married quarters are available.
- (f) Students who are not offered a place in either University accommodation or the Mary Morris International Residence are encouraged to come to Leeds prior to the commencement of their course in order to look for accommodation in the private sector. Temporary accommodation can be provided at a modest cost during the period consisting of the third and fourth weeks in July, the whole of August and days 1–10 inclusive in September. Advice will then be given by the staff of the Accommodation Office on how to look for accommodation. Temporary accommodation is not available during the academic session from the end of September to June inclusive.
- (g) Students who do not wish to apply for University accommodation but who would like an advice sheet about sources of non-University housing and/or an application form for the temporary accommodation described in (f) should write to the Senior Assistant Bursar (Accommodation) at the above address.

INFORMATION ABOUT ACCOMMODATION FOR POSTGRADUATES

UNIVERSITY HALLS OF RESIDENCE (where some meals are provided)

The majority of students living in Halls of Residence are undergraduates. However, Weetwood Hall is a postgraduate residence, and some other Halls do take a limited number of postgraduate students.

Weetwood Hall (capacity 60) is for the use of postgraduate students only of both sexes. The Hall is based on an elegant 17th Century house with an added wing of study bedrooms. It stands in beautiful grounds about 3½ miles from, and on a direct bus route to, the University. The meals provided are breakfast and an evening meal Monday - Friday, breakfast and lunch on Saturday and Sunday. The normal meals include the use of beef, pork, lamb and fish, but an alternative to pork or a vegetarian diet is available. A vegan diet and halal meat cannot be provided. Students may live there during the Christmas and Easter vacations. The Hall has common rooms and a library. The Hall adjoins the University playing fields and limited private car parking is available.

Charles Morris Hall (a limited number of places for postgraduates of both sexes). The Hall is modern and situated on precinct, and has covered access to most University facilities. During the undergraduate teaching terms breakfast, lunch, and an evening meal are provided. During the undergraduate vacations (3-4 weeks at Christmas and 3-4 weeks during the Easter vacation) a full meal service may not be available and students may need to move from their rooms into another Hall if large conferences are in residence then. An alternative to a meat dish is available, but strict vegetarians and vegans cannot be catered for and halal meat cannot be provided. The Hall is close to the University Union and the Sports Hall.

Devonshire Hall (a limited number of places for male postgraduates). This traditional Hall is situated about 15 minutes walk from the campus and is well known for its sporting and musical activities. Breakfast and an evening meal are provided Monday - Friday, and all meals at weekends. Lunches are optional from Monday - Friday. During the undergraduate Christmas and Easter vacations a meal service is normally available except for a two week period at Christmas and a few days at Easter. During these closure periods students will have to obtain meals elsewhere, but every effort will be made to allow them to retain their own room. Vegetarian food is available but a vegan diet and halal meal cannot be provided.

Lyddon Hall (a limited number of places for male postgraduates). This traditional Hall is situated on the campus. During the undergraduate terms breakfast, lunch and dinner are provided daily for residents in the main Hall and annexe. Vegetarian food is available but a vegan diet and halal meat cannot be provided. Residents in the associate flats make their own breakfast and take some lunches and dinners in the Hall dining room in term-time. The Hall has a common room with library and a billiard room. Sixty-three students live in the Hall and annexe. Students in the main Hall who need vacation residence at Christmas or Easter normally may move to either the annexe, where a kitchen is available, or into the Hall designated for vacation residence. Forty-three members live in the associate flats and may remain there during the Christmas and Easter vacations.

Ellerslie Hall The Hall houses sixty-seven female students and offers a few places to postgraduates. In term-time breakfast, lunch, and dinner are provided Monday - Friday. At the weekend lunch and dinner may be purchased at the nearby Charles Morris Hall. The Hall can provide a vegetarian diet, but a vegan diet and halal meat cannot be provided. During the Christmas and Easter vacations residents in the main Hall normally will have to move to whichever of the Halls is the one designated to take Hall vacation residents. Twenty-two residents live in associate flats and in term-time take four meals each week in Hall and join in social activities. The Hall has a library, TV room, and common room

COST: For a Hall of Residence providing all meals and including heating during the undergraduate teaching terms of 30 weeks the estimated cost is approximately £1,500.

UNIVERSITY FLATS (where cooking facilities are provided and students cook their own meals).

St. Mark's (500 places available for single male and female undergraduates and postgraduates). Situated very close to the University precinct. Modern purpose built accommodation with five students sharing cooking and washing facilities.

Bagby Fields (500 places available for single male and female undergraduates and postgraduates). Situated very close to the University precinct and opened in the 1989/90 session. Each room has its own washbasin and five students share cooking and other facilities.

James Baillie (over 400 places available for single male and female undergraduates and postgraduates). These flats are a five-minute bus journey or a 15-20 minute walk from the University. Each room has its own washbasin. Each kitchen is shared between seven students.

Smaller Flat Groupings There are some smaller flat units, both on and away from the University campus, in which postgraduates are housed. These are older properties which the University has converted for student use.

COST: Estimated rent (exclusive of the cost of heating) for the 39 week contract period for 1990-91, for a single room, £813 - £1,092. Students should budget for energy costs of £100 - £150 for that period.

UNIVERSITY MARRIED QUARTERS The University has only a very limited stock of furnished married quarters and only a few of them are suitable for couples with children.

COST: The anticipated rent for the 1990 - 91 session for University furnished married quarters is £760 - £1,500 for a 39 week period and to which must be added the cost of energy used for cooking and heating etc.

OTHER HOSTELS (not administered by the University).

The Mary Morris International Residence

This Residence is situated about two miles from the University and run by an independent Housing Association. 194 single rooms are available. Students cook their own meals. The Residence is experienced in housing students from all over the world, as well as approximately 40 from the United Kingdom. Postgraduate students are particularly welcome. A few married quarters are available.
