His Highness
Mr. George Bush
Vice President of the United States of America
The Old Executive Building
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Vice President,

My name is A. R. Nohishah. I am President of several small and united social-welfare organizations in Bangladesh under the qualified leadership of Future N.P.B. Central, at Dhaka, who sponsors current "Bangladesh Developmental Fund" worldwide.

After receiving my this formal letter to you and other writing materials sent to your Old Executive Office Building in Washington, D.C. all in the same time, I hope, after reviewing them thoroughly as "honorable" vice president of the U.S. Republican Administration, you would be optimistic to encourage President Ronald Reagan and the concerned State Department officials and urge them on the behalf of impoverish Bangladesh's true developments to encourage the martial-law govt. of President H. M. Ershad to get into serious negotiations with its well known opposition political alliances (as we are seeking same from the current South African turmoils) to establish national-unity-government for next 20 years in order to reform the failed government systems which is directing our native country and its millions of suffering people for decades toward the destruction of the society by its power greedy and irresponsible civilian-military leaders.

Therefore, in the conclusion of my research over my beloved country, I realized our sacred paths of making life comfortable lies beneath the united efforts of Civilian-Military government along with all major-minor socio-political party organizations, which could bring a distinctive hope in the country for getting ourselves up in the mood of feeling self reliance on certain resources already discovered in Bangladesh as example of Singapore, Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea, etc, instead of portraying our once prosperous country a life long beggar/client to all Western and Asian financiers recklessly on permanent basis.

I hope my first correspondence with your very respective office in the Reagan Administration regarding our challenge to poverty in Bangladesh would bring successes in our realization and would enhance our commitments in national-unity for bringing back the happiness, we Bangladeshi citizenry once were proud of.

In the conclusion, Mr. Vice President, I wish to be a helpful instrument to your Republican Administer-Government in order to solve this tumultuous world's disputes and turmoils. I hope, you will give me a admirable place in your heart.

Your truthfully,

A.R. Nohishah
