4 June, 1974.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of the Note of 26 May by which His Excellency Mr Georg von Lilienfeld informed me that he was leaving on that day on termination of his mission in Iran, and that pending the arrival of his successor you would be responsible for the affairs of the Embassy in the capacity of Charge d'Affaires a.i.

In conveying, through you, my thanks to His Excellency for this advice, I too should like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation, not only for the cordial relations which have existed between our two missions, but also for the friendly personal relations I have enjoyed with His Excellency since my arrival in Iran.

Please accept, Sir, the assurances of my high and most consideration.

Dear Hrs. Tavernaris,

It was with the greatest sorrow that I learnt on my return to Eicosia the sad news of the passing away of your dear husband. Kot only has Cyprus thereby lost one of its most striking and distinguished personalities, but I too have lost a good counsellor and friend, on whose valuable advice I could always count and rely. Hocking can at this moment relieve your sorrow of course, or replase tne beloved partner who has shared so many years of your life. I hope, however, dear Mrs. Tavernaris. that it may help you a little to know that my wife and I share your sorrow, and grieve with you in your great loss.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Gwilym, . ' ' ' '

I am very grateful for your letter; It is characteristic of you to write so generously. 2' ' -_ I_ 3 a

We have been colleagues and intimate friends for nearly 33 years and you have a very long and honourable record as a Member and as a Minister. As you say, you have served in many Governments of different Complexions but always following your sense of duty. I expect that one of your hardest tasks was when you were at the Ministry of Food; which you managed so ably in difficult times. Your tenure of the Home Office has been outstanding. -- - ; . .

Since you are frank enough to say that you feel it may be useful to bring new blood into the Cabinet I am accepting your offer, but it is with very deep regret, for I have cherished our friendship in and out of office. It was based on a real community of ideas and approach to politics.. -

yours ever, -V

January 12, 1957

My dear Prime Minister,

I have now held this office since 1951 and, as you
-know5, I have felt before this that it might serve the interests of Scotland and the Government best to bring tin fresh blood at the apprOpriate time. The present appears to provide that opportunity.

We have been together for many years and you are well aware that you have my complete support, - - -

In forming your Government you require room for manoeuvre and I hepe to see many of a new generation included: I believe that I can help you best in this by asking you-not to consider my name for feappointment. - It is something of which I am truly proud that I should have been permitted to serve Scotland to the best of my .ability for so long. a ' . it t

I 'possible for me to-introduoe new blood into the Cabinet.
These partings are alwas Sad, especially for somebody who has had so long an experience of office as you. To have been Chief Whip in a world war and intimate adviser to the greatest of-British Prime Ministers, is something to be proud of. To have been one of the most successful Secretaries of State for Scotland for many years is also a great achievement. -

I know that your departure will be regretted not only in Scotland but also by your colleagues, and all those with whom you have come into intimate contact. I a: glad to know that your advice and help will be available in the w House of Commons. . - . t, . . i

'Dear Welter, '. f
Many thanks for your letter of Jazuary 12. I am of course sorry that you should _not be in the list of names which I shall prrsent to the Queen. But I know your desire to leave political life and to make way for younger men.

It is nearly 45 years since we first became friends at Oxford and I think that friendship has never ceased.
l'.To have your good wishes means a great deal to me.
I would like to put on record how much the country owes to you for your work, not only as a Minister of 'Labour, which will always be remembered with admirati on and affection by all concerned, but also in other offices including the important post of Jinister of Def ence.
You will also be remembered for outstanding_services to the nation in different ways, especially during the last war. '

My dear Prime Mihister, a

I am writing to send you my congratulations upon your appointment. - - i -

I know that at this time you will be wishing to make many changes, and I am convinced that it is in the interests of the party and of the country that you should. I wish you to know that I shall be very happy to serve on the back benches. - I have enjoyed every minute of my stay here at this Kinistry; they are a wonde-ful team to lead. I believe that during the last year we have maintained the progress in health that was such a significant.feature of Iain Macleod's administration. To my successor I extend my beet wishes for his success.

. Thank you very much for your characteristically generous letter. I am very sorry that you will not be joining my new administration, but I understand your feeling that this is a time at which some changes would be good in order to give experience to those who've not held ministerial appointments; On leaving'office you can indeed look back with satisfaction on your record of service. Both at the Foreign Office as Under-Secretary of State and during your most sucessful time as Minister of Health, you have earned the gratitude and affection.of7your colleagues and Subordinates.

My dear Prime Minister,

It may help in the intricate task of forming the rest of your Government if you have this letter from me now;

For personal reasons which I have explained to you, I am writing to ask_you to exclude my name from consideration in any plans you are now making. , . ,

My post'at.the Board of Trade gave me the privilege of working near you whilst you were Chancellor and watching the euccess of your policies. My dear Toby,. . . . '

I was very sorry to receive.your letter and to know that. you did not feel able to continue in the Government. I wish. that you did not have to take this decision, but I fully understand your reasons.

You have given outstanding service both at the Ministry of Supply and at the'Board of Trade. I know from my experience as Chancellor hbw much you will be missed. . '

I am glad to feel that your experience will still be avai-lable to us in the House of Commons. '
