We, the Freedom Now group of artists, shortly to be constituted into a formal body which will become known as the Freedom Now Arts Foundation, came together in order to address certain issues in the cultural arena relevant to what are perceived to be neglected communities.

Historical and traditional establishment Structures have tended to exploit the art of these communities by including the indigenous elements as peripheral to the whole concept of a South African art ethic.

The artists exhibiting here represent the collective concerns of individuals who have a record of community involvement and who are not single-mindedly concerned with the commercial promotion and advancement of their artistic endeavours. These artists are an essential part of an initiative aimed at combatting the apathy prevalent in society generally.

We extend an invitation to you to join us in our efforts and look to receiving your Support for our ongoing programme of commitment to the creation of a truly equitable South African society.
