Dear Yusuf:

Thanks for your letter of August 11th.

I hope the attached circular can be of some help.

I didn't send to unions, but you can send copies if you wish.
I am ordering the Peace Books for Somafco, but won't have any extra funds in that line.

I will try to get the Freedom Funds money for December, but early January is much easier for us - after we have closed this years' books.

Sincerely,

Jim Kirkwood

RE : Support for Lehlohololo and Kitty Molefe, new Staff in ANC office, Canada, for Administrative Secretary/
Treasurer and Publicity Officer

ANC is hoping that these people will arrive in Canada in October. ANC has requested support from us for these new staff who are so very much needed in the Canadian office, especially now that the level of activity and requests for information, speakers, etc. is so much higher. We can expect that trend to continue.

The United Church is able to make a commitment of $3,500 and we understand that ANC is still waiting for a response from you. We are not trying to be trend-setters, but we do feel this is really important. It can help solidarity work for all of our constituencies by making more people available, and in a more organized fashion, from the ANC.

Please do what you can - at least for your budgets for next year. I know that short-term funding is often difficult, but if necessary we will advance our funds for this year so that you can pick it up from January. Please reply directly to Yusuf indicating what possibilities may be from your side.
