1. Comrade Kay was asked to convey to all concerned the serious difficulties of an organisational, social and financial nature caused by delays in the repatriation process. These include:

a. lack of confidence in the viability of the future of the educational institutions (SOMAFCO, Adult Education and VTC) resulting in extremely poor attendance and reluctance to register for these courses.

b. dropping out of work resulting in increase in number of people neither working nor studying.

c. large increase in cases of theft, fraud and vandalism. Some of this is attributed to "raising capital" for individuals to purchase tickets, for setting up home or simply to buy alcohol to "ward off frustration."

d. increase in violence.

e. increase in threats of violence and abuse directed against officials.

f. many instances of refusal to cooperate with decisions of authorities. .

g. DIFFICULTY OF OBTAINING'RELIABLE DATA ON NUMBER OF PEOPLE REMAINING THUS IMPOSSIBLE TO PLAN FUTURE EDUCATIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS OR FORMULATE PROJECT DOCUMENTS FOR THEM.

2. This sitbatioh' could be stabilised by repatriating part of the community, including those percieved as difficult to control or appease. AT LEAST 1000 PEOPLE SHOULD BE REPAT IMMEDIATELY. RIATED
