

Ci71zen 5] 066

Boycotters
â\200\234will_not | intimidate

Vaal Triangle student groups, dividend on boycotting the return 10 school next week, agreed in Sebokeng on Thursday night that students who wanted to go back to the classroom would not be intimidated.

A four-hour meeting convened by the Vaal Ministersâ\200\231 Solidarity Group, was attended by Representatives of the Congress of South Afri. can Students (COSAS), â\200\230the Azanian Students Movement (AZASM),
the Sharpeville Students National Resistance
Movement, Vaal Youth
Congress and the Vaal Parentsâ\200\231 Interim Committee.

Spokesman for the

Vaal Ministerâ\200\231s Solidarity ot

ateâ\200\231 |

Group, Father Lenkoe, | said the meeting was called to â\200\234look afresh at the question of the validity of the boycott,â\200\235 | which was called in September following town- | ship unrest in the Vaal. | ~ Since then, COSAS has been urging students to boycott school until detained students have been released, while AZASM has called for a return to school. .

Father Lenkoe said Thursday nightâ\200\231s meeting was unique in bringing together ~ the differing

ups. p â\200\231
He said it was decided that students who wanted to return to school would | not be. intimidated by those who advocated cott. â\200\224 Sapa.

A