Dear Conference Participant

Thank you very much for joining us for the 43rd Anniversary World, conference for a Nuclear-Free World to be held in Tokyo, 1 Hiroshima and Nagasaki from August 1 to 9, 1988. Here is some logistic and other important information you should pay attention to.

ARRIVAL:

1- Make sure you arrive in Tokyo by July 31.

The conference begins on August 1. On the evening of July 31, you will attend our general briefing to be held in Hotel Juraku (see the hotel list below). Enclosed you will find the information on how to get to the hotel.

2. We will make arrangements for the hotels and domestic transportation within Japan (Tokyo-Hiroshima-Nagasaki).

YOUR PAPERS

Send the following papers right away -WELL BEFORE YOU LEAVE FOR JAPAN.

1. Your self-introduction

About yourself and your group activities. In order to get a wider media publicity, we need to distribute information on what kind of participants we will have.

2. Your speech draft for the International Conference in Tokyo
Every delegate or every representative of a group of delegates is supposed to make about a 7 minute formal speech on the first day of the International Conference (August 1). See the conference schedule below. You can also refer to our paper previously sent to you, for the themes and content of our conference- Still you are free to raise your own points depending on your perspectives and activities. You can make a longer written statement for distribution in the conference if you want to. (Note that you will have more time to speak freely at the workshops to be held later in Tokyo, Hiroshima, and Nagasaki.) We will translate your speech draft into Japanese for distribution among the participants in the conference- Send your draft as early as possible to give us time for translation. (Help make our preparation work "peaceful. ") If you send the longer written statement early enough, we can translate it, too. (You can send your written statement only, and talk spontaneously at the conference, if you prefer.)

LANGUAGE:

English and Japanese will be used at the conference. Simultaneous translation will be provided between the two languages in most parts of the conference. We can provide only limited translation for other languages, i.e.: only for translation of her/his prepared speech. Please let us know as early as possible if you need special translation service- .
