Dear Colleague

RE: UNESCO SPONSORED SUB-REGIONAL MEETING CO-ORDINATING RESEARCH EFFECTS
OF SOUTH AFRICAN DESTABILIZATION POLICIES ON SOUTHERN AFRICA WITH REF: TO EDUCATION, SCIENCE, COMMUNICATION AND CULTURE, FEBRUARY 20-24, 1989

I am sorry that due to organisational problems it has not been possible for us to hold the above meeting in October this year.

However, our invitation to you still stands and you are free to work on the assigned topic for the February meeting.

Again, my apology for the inconvenience this may have caused you.

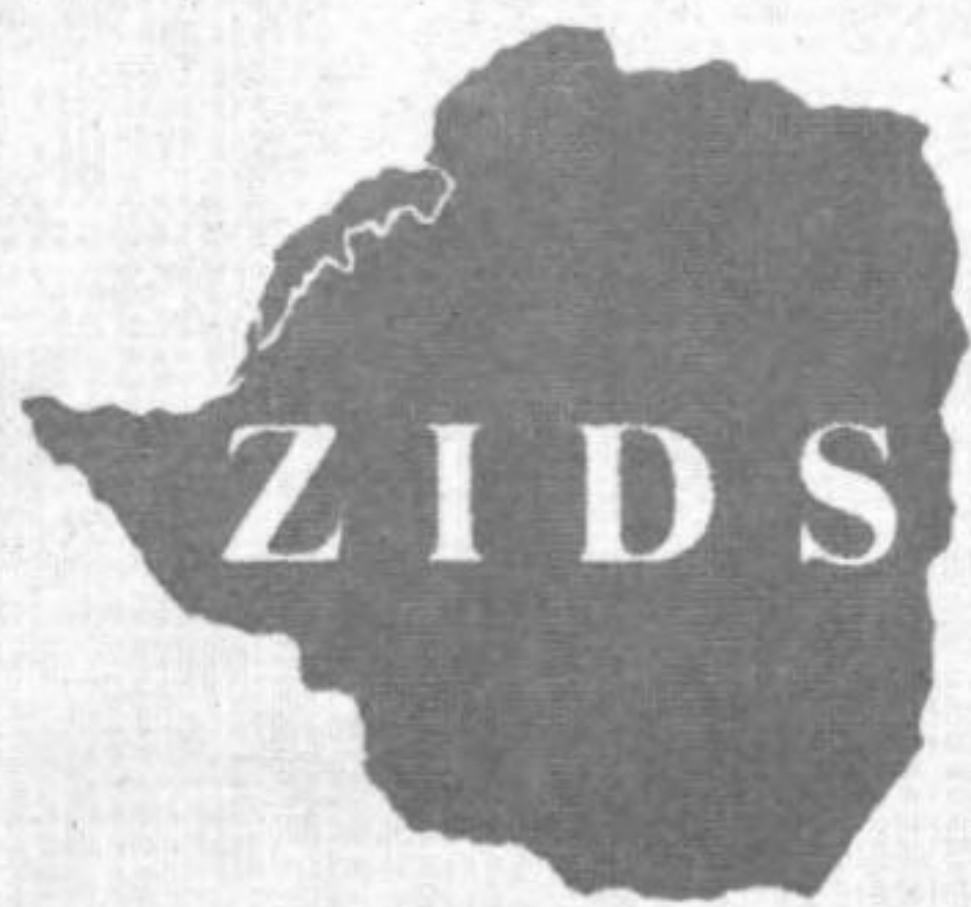

Best wishes,

Dr Donald P Chimanikire
CONVENOR

CALL FOR PAPERS

RE: UNESCO SPONSORED SUB-REGIONAL MEETING CO-ORDINATING RESEARCH
EFFECTS OF SOUTH AFRICAN DESTABILISATION POLICIES ON SOUTHERN AFRICA
WITH REF: TO EDUCATION, SCIENCE, COMMUNICATION & CULTURE, HARARE,
20-24th FEBRUARY 1989

ZIDS will host a UNESCO sponsored training seminar in Harare, Zimbabwe, from 20-24th February, to study ways and means of launching research programmes on the economic effects of South African policies of destabilization in the sub-region, the effects of state cohesion, the re-integration of returning mine workers, the effects of South African propaganda in the sub-region and in the presentation of the sub-region to the outside world, the impact of destabilization policies on education, science (including social sciences), communication and culture.

Particular attention will be paid to (a) the analysis of the phenomena; (b) ways of counteracting the destabilization policies of South Africa; (c) joint research and research priorities between institutions in the SADCC countries.

14 participants, from University Social Science Faculties and/or research institutions, coming from Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Mozambique, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe, including members of Liberation Movements recognised by the OAU, shall be invited. All expenses will be met by ZIDS.

Those interested should send in their 2 page paper proposals by mid-November 1988 for consideration to:
