I. INTRODUCTION

The Solomon Mahlangu Freedom College.is an educational institution estainshed at Mazimbu, Tanzania, by African National Congress in .1979. The school is designed to cater for the educational needs of a 0 large number of young South Africans.who have been forced to leave their home country.

SOMAFCO comprises 5' educational .sectors - secondary, primary, nursery, adult education and an orientation centre. A variety of support structures - hospital, farm, carpentry, factory, 'garment factory, ecobbler, garage, welding workshop, photo laboratory and technical department for building projects - have been established to serve the educational sector.' The total number of students and adults at Mezimbu now stands at 1000. '

With, the help of the youth sections of the Nordic Center Parties,1 a new library building has now been erected at Mazimbu. The library area is about 800 m2 consisting'of reference and lending sections, periodical and newspaper reading area, working -room, audiovisial section, theatre room and archives section. It.is planned to in the future house about 25.000 volumes of books and 250 periodicals and newspapers.

I. PROJECT v

The library was opened for the phblic in July 1986. It is meant to serve both the students and teaching staff of all the schools at Mazimbu as well as the other members'of the community.
