Rape victims to get HIV therapy

SIPHO KHUMALO
POLITICAL STAFF

A MAJOR programme to treat rape victims against HIV/Aids was announced by KwaZulu-Natal Health Minister Zweli Mkhize in his report to the legislature in Pietermaritzburg.

R12 million is being provided by the national Health Department for the programme, which will cover all hospitals, community health centres and large clinics which provide an emergency service.

Also included in this programme are general outpatient departments that provide after-hours emergency service.

Called Post Exposure Prophylaxis, the programme is already available to rape victims who are HIV negative.

"It includes counselling and voluntary testing together with the provision of anti-retrovirals to HIV negative rape victims.

"The combination anti-retroviral therapy is provided for 28 days," said Mkhize, who earlier this week announced a 100% roll-out of nevirapine at all 49 provincial hospitals with maternity facilities to combat mother-to-child transmission of HIV.

He said this programme included regular attendance of the victim for follow-up six, 12 and 24 weeks afterwards.

"It is preferable the victim is seen weekly for the first 28 days to ensure compliance and careful monitoring of the combination anti-retroviral therapy.

"This is because there are possible side-effects and toxicity and, for this reason, it is important that careful clinical assessment and blood test monitoring, including basal blood testing, is done," he said, adding a protocol for children had also been developed.

Mkhize noted that curable sexually transmitted infections still represented a major disease burden in KwaZulu-Natal.

Pornographic website angers KZN politicians

SIPHO KHUMALO
POLITICAL STAFF

A PORNOGRAPHIC website featuring cheering Zulu warriors, including IFP leader Mangosuthu Buthelezi and KwaZulu-Natal Social Welfare Minister Gideon Zulu, has caused a political stir in the province with a motion being tabled in the legislature yesterday castigating the site as dirty.

Also appearing on the site is a superimposed picture of the internationally famous actor Henry Cele, the lead actor in Shaka Zulu, having sex with a white woman.

The site also contains images of blacks having sex and oral sex with white women.

The site offers those who are interested a monthly access for $29.99 (R219.53) and a three-month access for $59.99 (R439.13).

The site has angered politicians who are seeking legal action against the owners of the site registered as www.savagesonblondes.

IFP MP Mandla Malakoane tabled a motion in the KZN legislature, castigating the people responsible for putting together the site.

"This house condemns this website, which portrays Zulu warriors as sex fanatics and which is an insult to the entire Zulu nation," he said.

Malakoane urged the house to work towards the abolition of the site and back Cele in his legal action against the owners of the site.

A spokesman for Zulu, Sphiwe Maphumulo, said the minister had seen the visual but did not want to comment until he had sought legal advice.

PAC expels 'divisionists'

CHARLES PHAHLANE
POLITICAL BUREAU

A BITTER battle for the soul of the Pan Africanist Congress is raging, with the party expelling "unrepentant divisionists" led by its former secretary-general Thami ka Plaattjie.

The PAC, irked by constant sniping from ka Plaattjie and Mgwebi Snail about irregularities at the Soweto congress in June where Motsoko Pheko was elected leader, responded this week by terminating the membership of the two "for good".

It also threatened those PAC members who might attend the All Africanist Conference organised by ka Plaattjie's group that their membership was "on thin ice" and their loyalty to party would be questioned.

"We are painfully aware that the historical problem of factionalism has reared its head again. This time in a much more pronounced and vicious sense. Activities and pronouncements before and since the Vista (Soweto) Congress clearly indicate that there was a determined, concerted and orchestrated campaign to totally undermine the standing and integrity of the PAC in the national political landscape," PAC deputy president Themba Godi said.

But the two have responded with outrage to their expulsion without a charge or a hearing.

"The schizophrenic behaviour of this (leadership) group has deteriorated to lavatorial levels. In his quest for recognition, Pheko met (former President Nelson) Mandela against his own conscience just to legitimise himself," Thabo Manamela, another spokesman for Ka Plaattjie's group, said.

Region co-ordinator Malinda Mpahlana also said Pheko had dug his own grave and had no locus standi to run the affairs of the party or fire anyone.

DAILY NEWS
FRIDAY AUGUST 29 2003*'Insult to Zulu nation'

A LEWD photographic website which shows IFP president Dr Mangosuthu Buthelezi and Prince Gideon Zulu watching with lusty amusement and approval while Henry Cele, the Durban actor, indulges in steamy sexual intercourse with a white woman, has left a sour taste in the mouths of some members of the provincial parliament.

IFP MP Mandla Malakoane yesterday said the site was in bad taste and an insult to the Zulu nation. The website, www.savagesblondes.com, shows randy naked couples in explicit sexual positions.

The site is believed to have been made in America. - Daily News Reporter
