Dear Mr Harrison

I am writing to request that I be funded for the Legal Practice Course which I hope to start in September 1994. By doing this course I will be completing my legal education as it is the compulsory vocational course, if one wants to be a solicitor having completed the undergraduate (LLB) Law degree.

Yours sincerely

Zabandu Ngcobo

Miss Z N Ngcobo

- ① Wishes to extend our commitment
- how to fund
- ② No amount of fees quoted - unhappy at open cheque
- ③ Query relevance of this course in
South Africa. may need guidance

Dear Mr Ngcobo

1994/95 LEGAL PRACTICE COURSE

OFFER OF A PLACE

I am pleased to tell you that your application to study at The College of Law for the Legal Practice Course has been successful.

The College is able to offer you a place on this course at its branch at Store Street, London.

If you wish to accept this offer, please

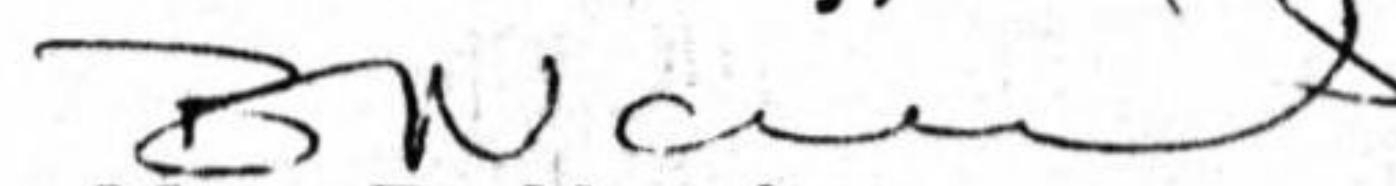

- (a) complete the enclosed acceptance form and return it to The College of Law, Guildford in the envelope provided as soon as possible and in any event not later than the 26th March 1994. We regret that because of the demand for places we cannot keep your place open after that date;
- (b) send with your acceptance form a cheque for £100.00 made out to "The College of Law" as a deposit to secure your place;
- (c) complete and return with your acceptance form the enclosed form headed "Your Provisional Choice of Options". To help you make your choice, we have also enclosed some explanatory Guidance on Choice of Optional Subjects. (There are one or two restrictions on your choice which are indicated on the form. This is either because one option (3 or 5) builds on another (1 and 2 respectively) or because the options overlap (e.g. 5 and 7). Please also note, in particular, paragraph IV (B) -(E) on page 2.)

More details of the acceptance process are contained in the attached Guidance Notes and also in the enclosed paper outlining The Law Society's Training Regulations 1990 and the Society's Requirements. It is important that you read each of these carefully.

The fee for the 1994/95 course will be fixed at the end of this month. Consideration is being given to requiring the full amount of fee to be paid by 26th August 1994.

We look forward to having you with us and hope to hear from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. B. Norris
