Re: Mr. Joseph Reilly's letter

Enclosed a breathtaking letter from Mr. Joseph D. Reilly, who last year sent us his address to the UN Special Political Committee on "Policies of apartheid of the Government of SA", concentrating then on library issues.

In his letter Mr. Reilly has raised several issues, but I have underlined two on page 2 that need our response:

- 1) Endorsement of "Guidelines for librarians interacting with SA". The answer is n fairly quickly. Should I draft a positive answer and send it off?
- 2) Reilly wants to come here before August to meet Nonkululeko. However, Nonkululeko won't return from her studies until the end of the year. I would like to answer Reilly explaining the situation but not excluding his possible visit here. Is that ok?
