

Pan African Youth Movement
P310. Box 1255
Monrovia, Liberia

June 5, 1987

Bro. Oliver Tambo
P.O. Box 31791
200\230Lusaka, Zambia
my dear Brother 0.3.,

Greetings.

I have just received my Dec. '86 and Jan. '87 copies of the SECHABA.

Therefore the 75th Anniversary Programme of Action (which is a masterpiece) can only be implemented from now up to Dec. '87.

ARC is my life.

I live, yet I do not live.

Apartheid has destroyed my manhood.

I am at liberty here yet I am not.
Nelson Mandela, my badaghi, Walter Sisulu, Gavan Mbeki, Ahmed Kathrada, Dennis Goldberg, my teenage brothers and sisters, South Africans, Unkhonto we Sizwe and the subjugated people of the world.

How can I, when I am mentally locked up with 9

—

surface of the earth.

History singles out Africans as the greatest warriors that ever existed on the Gur feats in defending our manhood are living testimonies of our heroic past. My dear brother 0 .R., we must now begin to reorganize and if possible commit class genocide in order to survive. We do not have to depend so much on outside help.

We are Africans, hated and despised but who are determined

We are men.

to exist.

200\230

We must develop a suicide squad; train our brothers, sisters and daughters to mix up with them; poison them and destabilize them.

We are the most hospitable race but if brutality will give us back our land, our hope and humanity, our integrity, our survival, we must then become not only brutal but wreckless to our enemies.

African nature is not brutal.

200\230

ANC must go back home.

Azania—our hope, must triumph, Ipi Tombi like others in 200\230 exile must return and together we shall embrace liberty.

I 200\230 am not a Nigerian, it is an accident that I belong to a porthgned continent.

I am an African and therefore feel the African pain.

Dear brother O.R., our problem is US.

â\200\230 and out andâ\200\234let'Ã@â\200\230fightâ\200\235fÃ@râ\200\235it. {I

1/7 _.,_._.____..V

Power a9d Apthority beleng to us. 'Get up!

BraVO to all compatriots who are dead or living.

AMANDLA MAATLA While the struggle continues!

R. Ewa Unokeâ\200\231