Please find enclosed a copy of a report from the Youth Section on discussions they had with the delegation from the World Federation of Democratic Youth recently.

The report speaks for itself.

However, we would like to draw the special attention of the National Working Committee to the section of the report dealing with a projected Youth conference to be held in Malagasy in June.

platform as attention would be particularly focussed on Apartheid.

our relations with the progressive forces on the island.

This occasion should also help us consolidate

This should provide us an important

We propose that early attention should be given to the preparations for that conference and decisions on such questions as names of our delegation made and communicated to Comrade Joe Nhlanhla so that air tickets can be obtained timeously.
