Dear Mr. Salooji,

Following on our telephone conversation a few days ago, I am writing to confirm that AMANDLA are due to arrive in Canada on 14 October and will remain there until the 24th, after which they will go to New York. Their arrival date in London is planned for 4 November.

If there is any change or any delay I would be very grateful if you could let us know immediately.

We have now to proceed on planning concerts in London and the tour of Britain and obviously every arrangement hinges on the confirmation of the above dates.

We have received a tape from Lindiwe in Sweden which we are copying at the moment and which we will send on to you for publicity purposes.

We would also like to confirm that you will bear the cost of fares from Luanda - Canada - New York, that the United States Office will pay the fares from New York to London and that we in Britain will be responsible for their return fares to Luanda.

I look forward to keeping in touch. With all good wishes,
