E "The government does I not have any moral standing or political competency to declare a general amnesty. Only on ; international government of
, national unity can claim i to have such moral authority and competency." Phosa said.
He said the ANC did not believe that the government could pardon itself for the crimes committed. Phosa said only government officials who were willing to give evidence to inquiries like the Goldstone Commission about political crime: they committed i should be granted indemnity.

strations Phosa said.
In another development, the ANC alliance shot down media reports claiming that a "train" of Nelson Mandela, FW De Klerk and Chief Muni-gosuthu Buthelezi would meet on September 14 under the auspices of the National Peace Accord. ' Alliance representative at this week's National Peace Committee (NPQ) meeting Loop Pahad told Ntswana that for the proposed meeting to be effective it would have to involve as abroad a spectrum of signatories as possible.

"A meeting of the so-called troika would create the impression that the ANC and Inkatha were responsible for the violence with the government standing by as a neutral referee." he said.

Cosatu and ANC members celebrate International Women 3 Day in Soweto last Sunday. Yhe ANC Women Ls League called on all women m the country to support the demands for an interim government and a democratically elected constituent assembly. 7739 League also called on all South African women to help curb the violence and pledged solidarity with women, who throughout the world, are engaged in stmgglesfor democracy
