Dear comrade S.G.

Re: Welfare assistance for my parents at home

I joined the African National Congress in 1977 and have since been a loyal cadre in its ranks. I am presently assigned to the Amandla Cultural Ensemble, and I am known as Mbongeni Dingindawo.

I am deeply depressed by information reaching me from home. Ever since I left my parents for exile, misfortunes befall my family one after the other. My sister who was a breadwinner in the family got married and was later divorced. My mother is left alone to fend for the children mentioned below including my own son Goodman. They are

Poison

Adednigo

Josia

Makhundu

Uusi

As for now, my parents and the children are subjected to abject poverty. I request that they be assisted financially to survive

My mother can be reached at this address

Churm store

P.O. Box 241

Komatipoort

1340 (TVL)

At home I am known by the name of Judas Sibusiso Mabaso and my mother's name is Ester Nana Mabaso (Maseda)

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience

Yours in the struggle
Mbongeni Dingindawo
