

Phanl LIRS

~ DAR-ES-SALAAM - Foreign Ministers of the mmomoh sation of African Unity (OAU) yesterday began drafting a compromise declaration on a new stand towards South Africa for final approval today. IR0 While, Foreign Ministers from the 42 OAU countries continued addressing the extraordinary meeting, a special . drafting committee of 13 countries and | four â\200\234liberation movementsâ\200\235 began the ' task of presenting a compromise which could win unanimous approval when the ! four-day meeting ends today's st . wqr | : Proposals from at least five countries have _been presented which reflect differing views on | - contacts with South Africa, and the OAUâ\200\231s role ~ in bringing about -African majority rule.in Rho- - desia and independence for South West Africa.

The division centres on how far Africa is justified g :T:â\200\230\ in seeking contact with the Pretoria Government to | m_mÃw?~ g 8 Bm+ er}d South Africaâ\200\231s role in Rhodesia and South West P @ gggggg Âf SE/ Africa. O 5 : -

All African States so far have rejected South | g.&â\200\230 4 & ÂS-ÂS n.ÂS 5 â\200\230Ã@â \200\230 Africaâ\200\231s detente overtures, and reiterated the OAUâ\200\231s 4 E gns o o total opposition to apartheid and the need for' con- ?ÂSÂS84 g'â\200\234E = tinued isolation of the South African Government. LEOE B P= g .o

ocalled hardiine States, led by Guinea and wÂS <S58 E8s Agerla, Jelect all contact with Preforia and have w5â\200\231 5.3 Â°8 2E

. called for continued confrontation and guerrilla war, ! rï~\201.."g b T 52} e85

| The moderates, led by Tanzania and Zambia, g S .Eg%gd,g-ï~\201nÂ« seek to justify using contacts with South Africa to ! Â@q'ï~\201'-â\200\230 v & wi~\201cÃ@g â\200\230

achieve a peaceful settlement if possible. t Â@A5E â\200\230 =

] dr;

-