The unconditional relea$e of Neison Mandeia, leader of the African National Congress, 15 a resounding victory for the people of South Africa and the international community.
We pay tribute to Nelson Mandeia for his uncompromising commitment, his courage his stoadfastness, and his belief in the determination of the South Afr1can peopWe to be free.
Mandeia will be released, but thousands of political priSonerS remain in apartheid jails even after the 2nd February announcement by President 9e KIerk on this matter.
He wil leased into a ceuntry that remains in chains. The State of
