Christopher Tyawana (24) was detained in a building society in Cape Town last -Wednesday. :

. Tyawana of the Zwelethemba Youth Organisation in Worcester had been in hiding for three months.

It has been alledged by his family that when his autoteller card would not funcâ\200\224 tion he was referred by the teller to the ?anager who kept him talking for some ime. While in the manager's

I : office; = â\200\230his family said, he was detained.

Bank allies with police

A manager from the building society said that VARSITY!'S questions placed him in "an embarrassing position" and would not comfirm the incident.

Although it was not the building socie-ty's policy to . co-operate with the poli-ce, they might provide information if requested, he said.

he building society's branch in Worceâ\200\224 ster confirmed that they knew the police were looking for Tyawana. Â¢

The police had not confirmed this at the time of going to press. "This is just one case, and we deal with thousands of these every month."
