Dear Tebogo,

In response to your letter of November 15 and the receipts you have provided us concerning caring for refugees and providing for their education and welfare, we have instructed our bank to forward, as you requested, to Ms. Julia C. Wells the sum of $5,144.

As you instructed, these funds have been forwarded to Julia C.

Wells bank account (289-351561) at the Meritor Saving Banks SS, 1401 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20005. These funds are to pay for Julia Wells' travel to Africa to be with her husband who is currently a political prisoner.

We understand that these funds will be used for the stated purposes in your letter of November 15, 1989. We would appreciate a brief acknowledgment that these funds have been received and, within the next two months, a brief report from Ms. Wells.

Dear Mr. Husain,

We have received, with deep appreciation and sincere thanks, your letter of November 18, 1989 to our President, Oliver Tambo, informing him that the 1989 Third World Prize has been awarded to four Church Leaders of South Africa.

This indeed gives us great joy and will no doubt serve as an inspiration and a source of encouragement for the four Church Leaders who are deeply involved in the struggle for the eradication of the evil system of apartheid.

Your letter will be brought to the notice of our President who is presently out of Zambia.

Yours sincerely,

ANTHONY MONGALO
