

. MQNEQ; Vuex V;

PROGRAMME STATE LUNCHEON - 10 MAY 1994
(1200 guests)

12:
13:
13:
13:
13:
13:
13:
13:
13:
13:
14:
14:
14:
15:
15
15:
16:
16:
15
15
25
30
31
32
34
38
40
48
10
30
50
05
:30
55
05
15

Meets with Foreign Delegations (Principal plus spouse)

Executive Deputy Presidents and their retinue arrives at the marquee for the State Luncheon

President arrives at the marquee

The Presidential party to be announced

National Anthems - Military bands

Word of welcome - Master of ceremonies

Prof J Heyns to say grace

Starter

Pull first course

Second course served

Pull second course

President - Speech

Main course to be served

Pull third course

Dessert to be served

Coffee/tea to be served

Luncheon ends

PROGRAMME FOR INAUGURATION CEREMONY AND LUNCHEON: 10 MAY 1994

PROGRAMME FOR THE INAUGURATION CEREMONY 10 MAY 1994

08:00

08:50

till

10:40

10:54

10:57

11:00

11:02

11:08

11:11

11:21

11:36

11:39

11:40

Note:

11:45

Foreign dignitaries and their delegations arrive at the Presidency for breakfast

Foreign dignitaries and their delegations to depart for the Amphitheatre at the Union Buildings

Announcement of the arrival of the Executive

Deputy Presidents by the Master of ceremonies

Announcement of the arrival of the President by the Master of ceremonies

Hoisting of the "new" National Flag by the National Defence Force. National Anthems: Joint Choirs

Swearing-in of Executive Deputy Presidents by the Honourable Chief Justice Corbett

Swearing-in of the President by the Honourable Chief Justice Corbett

Hindu prayer for Peace by Mr P V Lakhani

Reading from the Old Testament by Chief Rabbi C Harris

Reading from the Koran by Sheikh Nazim Mohammed

Christian prayer and blessing by Archbishop Desmond Tutu

Inaugural address by the President

Conclusion: Singing of National Anthems

National Salute

After the National Anthems, all guests remain standing. After the flypast, 21 gun salute and National Salute, everybody is requested to be seated whereupon the President, Executive Deputy Presidents, Heads of State and Members of the Cabinet followed by members of the Diplomatic Corps/Foreign Dignitaries and their delegations and then other guests, will leave the amphitheatre.

Foreign dignitaries and their delegations depart
for the Presidency for luncheon.