United Nations Educational and Training
Programme for Southern Africa (UNETPSA) -

3 October 1991

010-41-22-

UNETPSA AWARD IN CO-SPONSORSHIP WITH LUTHULI MEMORIAL TRUST

Dear Mr. Kotane,

Following the review of your application for financial assistance under the Programme, I am pleased to inform you that UNETPSA has approved the grant of a partial scholarship including tuition fees and a yearly book allowance of £ 240. The tuition fees will be paid directly to the University by this office, upon receipt of an invoice, and the book allowance will be paid directly to you or through the University once we have received confirmation from your school that you are attending the course for which the scholarship has been approved. Luthuli Memorial Trust will provide your maintenance.

The award is made to afford you the educational opportunities abroad for the purpose of preparing yourself for service to your country. To provide the maximum opportunity for you to acquire the knowledge and skills which you are seeking abroad the following programme is envisaged:

Degree/field of study: 3rd year (final) of B.Sc. Information Technology

Institute/country of study: Polytechnic of North London, England

Dates of award: maximum 10 months from 1st October 1991 to 31 July 1992

~~Renewal of this partial award is subject to satisfactory academic performance~~

You are therefore required to submit attendance/assessment reports provided by your academic supervisor: the first one before Christmas holiday; the second one before Easter holiday and the third one in late June.

Please note that your award is tenable only at the above institution for the course of study indicated and is not transferrable to another institution or for another course of study.

An acceptance of award form is attached that you should sign and return to this office without delay.

The administrative and financial arrangements of your partial UNETPSA scholarship are the responsibility of the Technical Assistance Recruitment and Fellowships Office (TARFO), United Nations, Geneva.

I am confident that this award will lead to a rewarding experience and will effectively help you to contribute to the development of your country.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Solomon KOTANE
