 Born 8.1.54 Swaziland

I was carving on masonite in a small format and making prints. I wanted to grow bigger and make bigger carvings because when you work on a bigger scale you can do more important work. When my work started to sell I could afford big pieces of wood. Now I am working on themes like 'Human Nature' and other ideas.

In Peoples Hero I felt Mandela was going to be President one day.

The chains are broken and everybody will be free.
