

1951

1977

1987

1989

1990

1990

ALFRED THOBA

Born in Johannesburg.

No formal training. Worked full time as an artist in central Johannesburg. He was constantly forced to move because of the Group Areas restrictions.

Painted a poignant work entitled 1976 Riots which was exhibited at the Market Gallery at the â\200\234100 Artists Protest Detention Without Trialâ\200\235 in January 1988. This work was published in

Sue Williamsonâ\200\231s book Resistance Art in South Africa.

Group show at Natalie Knight Gallery.

Group show â\200\234African Encountersâ\200\235 curated by Natalie Knight Gallery at the Dome Gallery, New NOT â\200\234African Encountersâ\200\235 travelled to the Alex Gallery in Washington and to Knight Galleries International, Toronto.

Group exhibition at Rand Afrikaans University.

1991

1991

1992

1993

1993

1993

1994

1994

One man show, Natalie Knight Gallery.

Thobaâ\200\231s work acquired by the University of Fort Hare, The Africana Museum, The Johannesburg Art Gallery, The Sandton Art Museum and others.

Nominated for the Vita Awards, exhibition at the Johannesburg Art Gallery.

Invited to exhibit at Galleri African Heritage, Oslo, Norway.

Group show, â\200\234Cultural Diversityâ\200\235, at the Natalie Knight Gallery, Johannesburg.

Group show â\200\234South African Art* at the World Trade Centre in Toronto curated by Knight Galleries International.

One Man show at the Natalie Knight Gallery, â\200\234Sex and Suburbiaâ\200\235.

Group show â\200\234Windows on the New South Africaâ\200\235 at the World Trade Centre, Toronto, curated by Knight Galleries International. Sponsored by SAA.

ALFRED THOBA

May 17 - June 6

1994
at
Natalie Knight Gallery
(011) 880-2212

Sex and Suburbia