Dear Brenda, Saras and Schwikkard,

Thank you for inviting me to speak at the launch of the book on last year's Conference proceedings.

I would have wished to attend, but assuming the ANC has a reasonable share of the vote, I should be in the National Assembly. The provisional plans indicate that May 26th will fall within the short Parliamentary session envisaged for May.

With regret, I must decline the invitation, but wish you every success with the launch.

We will need to throw' open the processes of Parliament to facilitate inputs to legislators from those outside.

I hope very much that you will keep in touch, especially as we begin to reshape the criminal justice system.

With my very best wishes,

Yours Sincerely
