AFRICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS (SOUTH AFRICA)
LONDON

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Minutes of meeting held on 3rd March 1978

PRESENT: Vic Finkelstein, Gairu Hussey, Freda Katz, Laura Miller, Mohamed Tikly, Harold Wolpe.

APOLOGIES: Hilary Mutch, Jean Middleton, Alf Bransky.

1. Seminar on Textbook-Writing

In response to Mandy's letter about the proposed seminar on textbook-writing to be held in Dar Es Salaam, a letter has been sent to him asking for more details. There's a possibility that the Open University may participate/sponsor the seminar.

2. Books

The meeting felt strongly that storage facilities ~~should~~ for books should be made available at the new office.

Members were reminded about the work-session on the following day (4 March) to complete work on the consignment of books to be sent on March 15.

3. Finance

The Office to be asked about separate accounting facilities.

4. Memo to Alfred Nzo

A memo will be sent to the General Secretary about our brief and channels of communication.

5. Research Committee Seminar

Further consultation necessary with the Research Committee before anything concrete can be done.

6. Future Work

Harold suggested that we should begin preparatory work and the following items were proposed for the agenda of the next meeting:- (1) Planning of materials, personnel, organisational steps; (2) Card index of books.
