. . . on the new states in South Africa

Transkei became an independent republic on 26 October 1976.

Bophuthatswana followed on 6 December 1977. Venda will become independent in 1979.

Various other countries are fast progressing in the same direction. They are at different stages of self-government.

Economic development starts taking shape. The map of Southern Africa is changing continually.

All these changes concern you. That is why it is important for you to be and stay up to date.

The Bureau for Economic Research: Co-operation and Development (Benso, formerly Benbo) frequently publishes on these developments.

The following have been published :

Black Development in South Africa — The economic development of the Black states in the RSA, 208 pages, colour photos, graphs, tables and a folding map of the Black states. Discusses all development aspects — economic, political and social. Available in English and Afrikaans. Published in 1976. Hardback with dust jacket.

Reviews on each Black state — each one of between 60 and 76 pages, with tables and a colour map of the Black state concerned. Reviews of Transkei, Ciskei, Kwazulu, Lebowa, Venda, Qwaqwa and Kangwane are available. All the reviews are bilingual and have been published between 1976 and 1978. Paperback.

Bophuthatswana at Independence — On all aspects of this new Republic. 136 pages, colour photos, supplement with 41 tables, colour folding map. Hardback, in English. Published in 1977 and 1978.

Two books by Professor J. A. Lombard — Freedom, Welfare and Order and Toekoms in Vryheid. On the principles of political co-operation and the economic approach to democracy essential for the future of South Africa. Published in 1978.

Statistical review of Black development. Some 70 tables summarising Black development in the Black states and in the rest of South Africa. Bilingual, paperback, published in 1978.
