In last December and April of this year, we had an opinion advertisement printed in a South African newspaper. It called for freedom for all political prisoners, particularly the Sharpeville Six, a lifting of the ban that was placed on 17 anti-apartheid organizations early this year, and the liberalization of the trade unions. Under these demands was a list of the Japanese citizens who made this call.

We are planning to print similar advertisements in the future. would you like to add your name to our petition? For more information, please contact the Japan Anti-Apartheid Committee. The cost is 1000 yen per person. The money HgggWOUBIN KleASE)_ Kid 362518 EEEbEUKLN KOUKOKUH$

Nelson Mandela, one of the main founder and developers of the African National Congress (ANC), has been imprisoned on Robbin Island for over 26 years.

He will turn 70 in July.

This is all due to the present system of government in South Africa.

You can take a stand against these injustices by writing to the South African government or the South African consulate in Tokyo. A short simple message is enough, such as "Free Mandela' or 'Don't kill the Sharpeville Six'.
