N Ews FROM ITALY__

A delegation of 3S Itahan businessmen visited RSA in September, looking ; . for a new era of ma) ..or trades with the country of apartheid. In a state- _ . ment releas13d at- theJ end 'of the visit, the delegation welcomed tall new developments towards a non-racial South Africa and defined current _ . .. 3.
' violence 111 Transvaal toWnships as mpicd' m a countxy which 15 changing . " so rapidly"; .

On the other: hand, Italian. businessmen blamed Trade Unions and ANCV t ' appeals for nanonahsanons I

At the same time the Intemational Olympic Committee has strengthened e -. sanctions against RSA; cerrecdy emphasizing that apartheid' 15 not finished; '- and that oppression is still the main mark of South African daily life _ . , Meanwhile PretOria propaganda is increasing. In Italy most media are - 3 , sponsoring the country as an earthly paradise filled by FW de Klerk with at ; 1 new. democracy. They add that violence 13 just "black vs blackii and many . .
travel agenda are making full use of new developments to encourage and promote amazing holidays 111 South Africa. In Milan, the city leeding ' Italian buSilless,-the-South African Consulate has reached an agreement. .1 , with a private radio Station, medic Sei Milano, to broadcast a weekly ' news program

We believe the first task of the Italian and the EEC anti-apartheid movement is to support the struggle of South Afncan majority against current assaults planned by Buthelezfs Impis, backed by South African Police and' Army and flanked by white racist groups. Popular struggle will be weakened by any move to reduce sanctions. This is why we ask the Italian and the EEC governments 'to take a firm stand against all businessmen who act to break ONU andFEEC 'embargoes.
