i am sure you will be pleased to know that the publicetlen of WWI;

- AME: stimulated a great deal of- interest and comment within South Africa, and copies o f

the first edltlon are virtually exhausted. The Southern Afrlcan Nature Foundation has bee n

asked to produce a revised second edition. and as a preparation tor this we are eeklng constructive comments and criticlerns from a wide spectrum of South African society. .

Following your enthusiastic response to our initial request tor comments on the first edition, we Would appreciate, your partlclpetlon In a workshop to discuss the second edltion which will be held at The Court House in Johannesburg (map enclosed) from 09h00 to 17h00 on Thursday 24 February The workshop will be chaired by. Professor

Dan Archer (BP Chair of Environmental Policy and Management) and the author. _Jc'Ihn

. Yeld, will be present to take note of recommended changes and new concepts. I

I do hope that you will be able to find time in your busy schedule to join us at the workehop (lunch will be provided) and to help us put together the second editien of this seminal document. Please reply to Mrs Jeanne Strelcher (phone 021-887 2801 or ' tax 021-687 9517). We look forward to Welcoming you at The Court House.
